EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES

Welcome to Young at Art 2025!

On behalf of the staff and Board of Lehigh Valley Arts & Cultural Alliance (LVACA), it is my pleasure to welcome you to the region's only creative expo for potential young artists, singers, dancers, actors, writers and thinkers of the Lehigh Valley.

Through our 20+ partners and exhibitors, we hope you and your children are able to spend the day exploring some of the most well-known creative and artistic outlets as well as find hidden gems that will inspire and challenge young minds to pursue new pathways.

Young at Art would not be possible without the amazing team at Penn State University: Lehigh Valley Campus whose dedication and expertise facilitates a great experience for all of our guests and presenters at today's event. We also would like to acknowledge our sponsors and benefactors for their support of LVACA and Young at Art.

Young at Art is one of the signature community programs of LVACA, a unique arts and cultural advocacy organization devoted to seeing the arts flourish in our community. LVACA is committed to ensuring that the arts are accessible to all, and that the diverse forms of artistic expression and cultural identities are an inescapable part of the quality of life in our region.

Thank you again for joining us for this year's edition of Young at Art. We encourage you to check out all of the displays, exhibits, and performances with your child and find the one that sparks their imagination and puts them on a journey towards lifelong learning and exploring their creativity.

Creatively Yours,
